

Your Complete Environmental
Guide to Making Political
Choices in the '90's

JEREMY RIFKIN AND
CAROL GRUNEWALD
RIFKIN

DOUBLEDAY

New York London Toronto Sydney Auckland

CONTENTS

SECTION I: GREEN POLITICS

Introduction: The Emergence of Green Politics	3
The Global Environmental Crisis	7
Environment: The Framework for Politics	11
From Geopolitics to Biosphere Politics	14
Defending the Commons	16
The Greening of Science and Technology	21
Green Economics	26
Redefining Progress	30
Beyond Right and Left	32

SECTION II: GREEN LEGISLATION: ISSUES, BILLS, AND SPONSORS

Voting Green	39
Global Warming: The Greenhouse Effect	41
Restoring the Ozone Layer	57
Energy Addiction	66
Transporting America	78
Turning Arms into a Green Dividend	89
Sustainable International Development	107
A Biosphere Foreign Policy	128

Opening the Global Commons	142
Toward an Ecological Agriculture	149
Stewarding Public Lands	164
Protecting Forests and Wetlands	189
Championing the Rights of Animals	195
A Genetically Engineered Nature	226
Saving Endangered Species and Preserving Biodiversity	243
The Green Platform for 1992	271

SECTION III: VOTING GREEN

The Congressional Green Profile and Report Card	287
The Bush Administration "Green" Report Card	353